As you gather with family and friends, going to parties and Christmas concerts, laughing, buying presents, eating delicious food, please remember those that for one reason or another are in jails, prisons, rehabs, hospitals, homeless, fighting wars and far from home sharing the Gospel of hope in Christ Jesus. The holidays are so very hard on our ladies, too. Separated from everyone that they long to have love from, they weep and grieve what their lives have become. Despair and depression are rampant. Hopelessness grabs ahold of them.

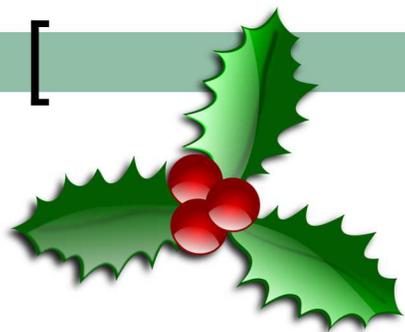

Yet, this is when we remember Jesus left His family, His home to come to our dark, fallen world, drawing us into His light and love. Without Him we would surely be lost and without hope. Born in a manger for there was no room for Him in the inn. We need Him now more than ever. Come Lord Jesus, Maranatha, Come Quickly.

In the Spring newsletter we displayed a picture of the house we decided to build for more beds for ladies. At that time we were talking to contractors and pulling permits. Three days before we signed the contract to build, the owner of Select Homes met with us offering two homes for the price of one. That changed our plans. It has taken us a few months to work out the details of this new direction. We are now about to break ground. The foundation work began in November. The first home should be set within a couple of weeks. Then on to the second home.

God has provided. Praise to God for what He has accomplished. Many thanks to our donors who have been patient and giving toward this vision.

Here we go!!

PRAISE & PRAYER

- Praise the Lord for His mercy and grace with us His children that constantly forget He is all we need.
- Praise the Lord for new Sisters in Christ again this week. Our God is on the move. It is such a privilege to watch Him work.
- Pray for the work on the new houses, as we watch the unfolding of His provision for more ladies.
- Pray for the women to believe He loves them no matter what they have been through or have done. Pray they know there is nothing they can do to make Him love them more or less.
- Praise the Lord for Ashley Dew, a new Intern.
- Praise the Lord for the Holy Spirit, God with us. Wow! This is impossible without Him.
- Pray for two of our teachers, Kaye Hauser and Sandy Linville as they battle cancer.

NOWHERE TO PUT HER HEAD

Kay is a single, uneducated young mother of three. She was released from jail on probation and nowhere to go. She had lived on the streets, in the woods, under bridges. It had been years since she saw her children. The cycle of drugs, drink, hospitals, psychiatric institutions, abuse and back into jail made hopelessness her constant companion.

But God sent a woman to give her information about Solus Christus, a safe place to rest her exhausted head, a place where food, hot showers and clean clothes were waiting on her. When she arrived at our 100 year old farm house in the country, she couldn't look us in the eye. She was nervous, shaking, beat down by life.

Now her arms are raised in praise as we sing to the Lord full of gratitude for His mercy, love and grace. We are amazed the King of Kings would call our name, call us to Him, wrap us in His arms. What an awesome God we serve!!

Kay is starting her journey. There is lots of healing to be done, lots of trust to be relearned.

But our God is mighty to save. What a privilege to be part of this ministry watching one lady at a time come to life in Christ. Thank you for your support. Thank you for volunteering. Thank you for your prayers. To God be the glory great things He has done.

Living Proof

For those that think you can't recover..I'm living proof that you can, so thankful. I want to thank Solus Christus for helping me get my life back from the devil. I know now that I have a choice and I choose to live everyday to the fullest. You are God sent and I love you and everything you stand for. Since I left there I've reunited with my youngest daughter after 12 years and I also have gotten my family back in my life. For that I am forever grateful.

BEATEN DAILY

I'm almost 30 years old with 5 children. I was raised with my sister, neither of us know our fathers. All we remember seeing was the man that abused our mother. This was something we watched happen multiple times a day till I was about 10. He was a member of a biker club, yep that's right, so you can imagine the things we witnessed growing up. Violence, the use of drugs and alcohol and there wasn't really a time that we didn't see a half naked woman as well as many other things children shouldn't see.

Our mother was gone most of the time with this man and other members of the club or we just didn't see her because we were in the 'dungeon'. It was where they sent the kids when a fight broke out or they were partying. At 10 we finally got some clothes and moved out. Mom met up with a man that eventually became my step dad.

I was gang raped a few years later at 13. Everyone at school knew what happened and made fun of me, pulled my hair, called me names. I shut down. I started drinking, smoking pot and eventually progressed to anything else I could get my hands on. I fractured my back really bad and had to be specially fitted for a back brace. It was very uncomfortable. I was put on pain pills.

I married my childhood sweetheart.. We began to shoot up together. He was tormented by his past and was very abusive. For 2 years I endured daily beatings as many times a day as he felt like it. I had many close calls with death, but I continued to stay. I loved him. I wanted to save him, but realized I couldn't.

God brought me here to really open my eyes to what is important and to learn about Him. I'm glad I came here. Within a couple of weeks I began to get comfortable with the woman here, beginning to love them. I finally felt like family, eating at the table, praying together, having bonfires, etc. I love the ladies here and all the ways they've been here for me. I love and appreciate you. Thank you to everyone for preparing me for my journey with Christ.

CELEBRATE !!

I rejoiced with those who said to me, 'Let us go to the house of the Lord.' Our feet are standing in your gates, O Jerusalem." Psalm 122:1-2. Our hearts are full of worship. We remember where God has taken us from a home on 4th St. in Winston Salem to a beautiful 100-year old farm house on 11 acres and 2 more houses going up for women He is bringing to the new Jerusalem. The ladies remember where they have come from—darkness, homelessness, hunger, despair to the presence of the Almighty and His wonderful grace and mercy. We celebrate with them as they face their brokenness and disappointments with the new found joy of knowing they are now a child of the Most High God! We will not forget the awesome privilege to already be worshiping our Savior in His presence but not yet what it will be like when we see Him face to face! What a day that will be!
