In the last 5 months 137 women have entered Solus Christus. 135 were homeless. 8 came for transition. 5 came because of gangs. 124 came because of addiction.

What a privilege to be used of God, to share the love of Christ with them, the mercy, love, and grace available through the cross.

I BLAMED GOD

Born in what looked like a Christian family, even going to a Christian school, life was full of emotional and sexual abuse, as well as alcohol addiction behind closed doors. Kerry turned to abusive men and drugs trying to escape the pain.

“God saved my life sending me to Solus Christus. Thank God I am not in control. When I first arrived, I was a broken, tired, hopeless, empty shell. Now God has made me a totally different person with a totally different brain. All that anger I used to feel is gone. The constant fear I used to have is gone. God set me free. I also realized that most of the traumatic things that happened to me that I blamed God for were brought on by my sin and my trying to control my life. I was carrying a cross that had already been carried for me. God forgave me for everything. Now He sees me as His pure, innocent child. I’m working on forgiving others since God has given me a new heart and love for others. Thank God for His mercy and love. I have never been so at peace or so happy. God loves you and has a wonderful plan for your life.” Kerry

25 DAYS LATER

3 years ago my life came crashing down. Divorced, having to share my children, and remarried in an unhealthy marriage all at once. I ended up using drugs steadily for 3 years. Nothing seemed to work. Bills never paid. The hole I was in kept getting deeper. I felt alone, worthless, crushed. I could have cared less if I was alive or dead.

April 1st, I slipped out of our house at 2 a.m. in my pjs and went to the hospital. 8 days later I was stepping up the stairs at Solus Christus. I did not want to live. I had numbed my life. But I did know that I wanted help. Slowly I started feeling again. I laughed, cried, and had lots of tears. God was tugging at my life again.

25 days later, I now believe that even through my storm God was and is still with me. He came after me. He tore down my whole life coming after me. He took my children and kept them safe. Even though it seemed my kids were taken away from me (that was a lie). Jesus was keeping them safe, taking care of their needs, protecting them.

He came after me when I was in addiction, the addiction that was going to kill me. I am now on my way to a 6-month Christian program where I will continue my journey with God every step of the way.

Phil. 4:4-9 "Rejoice in the Lord always, again I will say, rejoice! Let your forbearing spirit be known to all men. The Lord is near. Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God, and the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, shall guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, let your mind dwell on these things. The things you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, practice these things and the God of peace shall be with you."
